

Safer Surgery for Africa – A Key to Global Health?

Bruce Biccard
Presents his Concept to Improve Access to Surgical Care in Africa

Free Entry

When? Thursday, 10.10.2024, 18:00 - 20:00

Where? Universitätsklinikum Essen, LLZ, Virchowstraße
163a, 45147 Essen

Universitätsmedizin Essen
Universitätsklinikum

GERMAN SOCIETY FOR GLOBAL AND TROPICAL SURGERY
DTC DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT
FÜR GLOBALE UND
TROPENCHIRURGIE E.V.

GLOBAL SURGERY
UMBRELLA

NETHERLANDS SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL SURGERY

5
Billion

People Don't Have Access to Safe Essential and Emergency Surgical Care

143
Million

Additional Surgeries Are Necessary to Save Lives and Prevent Disability

30
Percent

Of Global Disease Can Be Treated by Surgery or Requires a Surgeon's Care

We invite you to attend Bruce Biccard's presentation followed by a panel discussion on the topic "Safer Surgery for Africa". Leading international experts will provide insights and discuss the significance of his approach.

Participants:

- K. Chiponda, Minister of Health, Malawi
- Prof. E. Makasa, Health Expert, WHO, Zambia
- Prof. A. Borrero, Former Vice President, Ecuador
- Prof. E. Ameh, Paediatric Surgeon, Nigeria
- Dr. I. Waqainabete, Former Minister of Health, Fiji